

Australian Hotel & Brewery - FOH Staff (Casual)

The Australian Hotel and Brewery is an esteemed hospitality business in Sydney's North West and home to Australian Brewery Craft Beer - serving award-winning, hand-crafted beer right on the premises.

We are currently seeking FOH Floor Staff to join our passionate and friendly team. This role will report directly to the Venue Manager and provide operational support for this large, multi-revenue stream business.

Being a casual role, this job will suit someone looking for life flexibility, with working hours for various hours Monday - Sunday. This role involves working across the areas of gaming, beverage, catering & events. No previous hospitality experience is required however successful applicants would of demonstrated strong interpersonal skills and a passion for serving customers.

To be Successful in obtaining this role you will need the following:

- Must be available to work Monday to Sunday - mornings, afternoons and nights
- Completed and have a valid RSA & RCG qualification or willing to obtain before commencement
- Must have a friendly personality and enjoy meeting and talking with new people
- Must genuinely enjoy working with many diverse staff and serving diver customers
- Must have a strong work ethic and willing to get the job done.
- Demonstrate high-quality customer Service
- Effective communication and time management skills
- Manner must be professional and that is reflected by being well-presented and organized
- Must be eligible to work in Australia and over the age of 18

We have a dynamic and fun hospitality environment and award winning business.

Enjoy the Benefits of the Redcape Hotel Group:

Hands on coaching, customised training and mentoring from the best in the business.
Diverse portfolio of 28 hotels across NSW and QLD provides unparalleled growth opportunities.
Strong company culture committed to high performance encourages passionate industry professionals to contribute their best.

Clearly defined career progression pathway.

If you believe you are an extraordinary ambassador for our culture and values, and possess the motivation and discipline that makes you exceptional in your current role, we can offer you unprecedented career opportunities and will move mountains to keep you on our team. Apply today!

To be part of this vibrant team, please send an up to date CV with references to enquiries@australianhotelbrewery.com.au